

The Country Representative
Of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees In Papua New Guinea

Ms. Walpurga Englbrecht

Requests the pleasure of the company of

.....

At a Reception to mark the World Refugee Day (20 June)

On the global theme “They took my home but they can’t take my future”

To enhance the understanding of refugees, we have been working with Mr. Martin Tonny and Mr. Motsy David and their “Creative Art Students” to perform a drama on refugee experiences. In addition, you can enjoy an exhibition of photos; admire refugee children drawings (choose your top three); and support refugees through various activities (refugee products / photos will be available for purchase).

Date: 6 to 8 pm, Sunday, 20 June 2010

Venue: Ulli Beier Theatre
UPNG Main Campus, WAIGANI

RSVP : Tel. 321 7422 / 321 5973; Fax 321 5977

E-mail: haiapo@unhcr.org (latest by 17 June 2010)

Dress: Informal

But this should not be an event for only some. The General Public is cordially invited to join us on 20 June in the afternoon and at this stage, the following programme will be offered:

2 pm: Drama performed by the Creative Art Students

1 to 5 pm: Exhibition (photos, children drawings, etc).

